What to expect from us:

- Webinars and workshops throughout the year to develop the skills and knowledge needed to take action and build projects for wildlife and people.
- Celebration and recognition of action and projects through social media.
- Support to develop projects through digital toolkits, site visits, informal discussions and attendance to meetings.
- Access to EECOS consultancy where appropriate.
- Digital material to help promote action or projects.
- Support with signage wording for action and projects.
- A chance to feedback, telling us as a local authority what you think of the scheme to help us guide our future work.
- The local authorities point of contact will be the Urban Engagement Officer within the Trust.

What we expect from you as a local authority:

- Promote actions or projects and the work being done to create a Wilder Town or Wilder Village.
- Tell people about our campaign for a Wilder Essex and your contribution as a Wilder Town or Wilder Village. This could be on social media, word of mouth, in the local paper or newsletters.
- Support and share learning with other local authorities also part of Wilder Towns, Wilder Villages project.
- Share experiences with us so we can share them with our funders, supporters and other communities.
- Acknowledge that being part of Wilder Towns, Wilder Villages project does not mean the local authority is a volunteer or representative of the Trust. Any references of the Trust a local authority makes will not bring the Trust into disrepute.

What not to expect:

- The local authority remains responsible for projects, actions, activities and events at all times. The Trust cannot accept responsibility for them or provide the local authority with insurance.
- We cannot reimburse the local authority for any travel, equipment or any other expenditure that may occur within the Wilder Towns, Wilder Villages project.

Wilder Towns, Wilder Villages Agreement:

As the local authority representative, I understand the agreement outlined above.
